I have tried this two different times and while the coverage is decent, it is SO CAKEY on my skin. It is heavy and just packs on my skin. I have a hard time blending it out as well.

Doesn't work very well with oily skin

I was so excited to buy this foundation because I've heard such good things about it! I have super oily skin and to be honest, this isn't as long wearing as I thought it would be. If you have oily skin, your oil will definitely start to shine through. The foundation itself fades a little bit from certain areas of my face throughout the day. It is not mattifying by any means and it does slide around. Just because ...read more

Boy was I right! The coverage is flawless! I ...read more

Good quality

This foundation is pretty good! It goes on my face nicely and stays on, for yes, 12 hours which is amazing for me because I have oily, acne prone skin. This product also did not make me break out surprisingly and I really like that. It's a thicker foundation, and you only need a little because a little goes a long way. Also, this foundation is not exactly a blendable kind (and by blendable, I mean ...read more

Full coverage ! I don't even need concealer anymore ! It matches my skin perfectly, but I have VERY oily skin, I wish it wouldn't make me look so shiny throughout the day.
